

Mornington Peninsula is a special place where vines thrive in sheltered undulating valleys, nurtured by a cool maritime climate, bathed in sunlight and cooled by bay breezes. Winemakers in the area create elegant, personality-packed award-winning wines. The region produces predominantly Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Gris/Grigio, with a small emerging presence of Shiraz creating a diverse wine region.

Summerfield Reserve Shiraz 2015 100.00

James Halliday Points 95 Pyrenees Victoria
Halliday Tasting Notes

This preens the regular Shiraz's mane with added flare, giving greater gusto to the intensity of the fruit and the oak applied. Sourced from the original 70s plantings, there is an additional element of spice, too: clove and cardamom. Betel leaf and anise ply their intrigue across a kaleidoscope of dark fruit flavours, blue and black all. The finish is penetrating and long, driving across the mouth and down the throat. Cola and barbeque notes linger. Nothing is out of place.

Quealy Musk Creek Pinot Gris 2018 90.00

James Halliday Points 95 Mornington Peninsula
Winemaker's Tasting Note

Mornington Peninsula Pinot Gris at its most voluptuous. Aroma of wild honey, wood smoke and moving towards classic pinot noir aromas of red berry, forest floor. Powerful palate of the honey and berry, soft and rich however not sweet, and poised with natural acidity and ever so delicate white tannin. There are definite Pinot Noir notes in Musk Creek Pinot Gris and yet the wine is a lustrous green-gold hue. Powerful Pinot Gris poised to suit a range of luxurious dishes and beasts, the winemaker suggests wash rind cheese, lobster, crab, or duck.
